

C-NOTE
UNIVERSITY NEWS

C-Note's April, May and June 2007 story lineup in Googolplex, on your credit union's web site:

Skateboard Pro:
WHAT DOES IT TAKE?

"I knew I wanted to be a professional skateboarder since I was nine," says 19-year-old Adam Yee. Adam got his first professional endorsements when he was fourteen years old. Read Adam's tips for success.

C-Note's April, May and June 2007 game lineup in Googolplex, on your credit union's web site:

When Planets Align

What happens when you get the power to re-align planets and their moons? We'll give you four different solar systems to work in. You'll find out what a "Moon Unit" really is!

Surrounded

Take on The Master in this game of strategy. Convert his tokens before he converts yours. If he converts your tokens faster than you convert his, you'll quickly see where your opponent gets his name.

Get Yourself to HAWAII

C-Note youth editorial board member Kristyn Gamble got to go to Hawaii with her high school band. It took "large amount of money," says Kristyn, but "no amount of money would equal my experiences in Hawaii."

Manage Your College Applications

"The dreaded college application process is just around the corner," says C-Note youth editorial board member Alec Jankowski. Fortunately, Jankowski will show you how to "turn this tedious process into a streamline college application machine!"

Stash Your Cash!

Get on board for some good fun as you follow a pirate map from island to island, purchasing your goods! C-Note "gives" you $100 and 30 days to maximize your (pi)rate of return. Keep playing and improve your score!

PAST DUE

WHY WOULD I HAVE A BAD CREDIT REPORT?

HOW COULD YOU, MARCYP? AFTER WHAT YOUR MOTHER PUT US THROUGH.

DAD NEVER EVEN GAVE ME A CHANCE TO EXPLAIN! AND NOW I'M LATE FOR THE COMPETITION.

PACK UP, EVERYONE! WE'RE GOING ON A CARIBBEAN CRUISE!

MARCY, DON'T FORGET TO PACK THE NEW CLOTHES I BOUGHT YOU!

BUT, DAD, I DON'T EVEN HAVE A CREDIT CARD!
